LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

Excerpt from Standing Orders Relating to Private Bills

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Societies Act
Canada:
Province of British Columbia.

No. 6410.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that, pursuant to section 42, The Real Estate Institute of British Columbia and B.C. Association of Real Estate Boards have amalgamated and formed a new Society under the name "The Real Estate Institute of British Columbia," which has this day been incorporated as a Society under the Societies Act.

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.

[L.S.] A. H. HALL,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the amalgamated Society are:—

(a) To establish, maintain, and regulate The Real Estate Institute of British Columbia:

(b) To advance and promote the interests of those engaged in the calling of real estate:

(c) To promote and increase the knowledge, skill, and proficiency of its members and their employees in all things relating to the calling of real estate:

(d) To advance and improve the relations of the members of the Society with the public and to increase public confidence in and respect for those engaged in the calling of real estate:

(e) To secure the adoption and enforcement of sound rules of professional conduct among those engaged in the calling of real estate:

(f) To establish and maintain a Professional Membership Division within the Society whereby those individuals engaged in the calling of real estate, as herein defined, may, subject to the requirements of the Professional Membership Division, become professional members of the Society, sworn to abide by a strict code of professional conduct as may from time to time be established by the governors and dedicated to the task of establishing and maintaining the calling of real estate as an honourable and respected profession:

(g) To establish and maintain a Realtor Membership Division within the Society whereby those individuals engaged in the calling of real estate, as herein defined, may, subject to the requirements of the Realtor Membership Division, become realtor members of the Society dedicated to the advancement of the objects of this Society:

(h) To establish and maintain a Provincial Membership Division within the Society in which those persons licensed under the Real Estate Act as real-estate agents or nominees shall, by virtue of such licence, be eligible for membership, provided they apply for same; the principal function of the Provincial Membership Division shall be to elect fifteen councillors as hereinafter provided by the by-laws, which councillors shall be recommended to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council for appointment to the Real Estate Council:

(i) To encourage the study of real estate in all its aspects, and to promote the exchange of views between members of the Society by affording opportunities for discussion, correspondence, attendance at lectures, and the reading of papers, and to disseminate useful information by circulation among the members of publications, data, and forms:

(j) To make grants and donations out of the income or funds of the Society for charitable or educational purposes of the Society:

(k) To raise funds to be applied in the promotion and furtherance of real estate education:

(l) To provide grants, fellowships, scholarships, and awards to the University of British Columbia and other educational institutions to be used for the promotion and furtherance of education relating to real estate:

(m) To assist generally in the development of British Columbia along the lines best calculated to promote the wellbeing and prosperity of its inhabitants:

(n) To encourage and protect the rights of private ownership of real property:

(o) To unite those engaged in the calling of real estate with the owners of real estate in British Columbia for the purpose of exerting effectively a combined influence upon matters affecting real estate:

(p) To advocate and formulate the establishment of just and desirable and uniform legislation affecting the vocation of real estate:

(q) To institute, promote, manage, and maintain systems and plans for the listing and sale of real estate with the object of rendering the best possible service to the general public for the purchase and sale of real estate through the members of the Society by providing vendors of real estate with a wide potential market and by providing purchasers of real estate with a wide selection of properties.
